

BOOKLISTS

NEW STUDENT COURSES ONLY

(MDiv, MA, MA in Diaconal Ministry)

FALL SEMESTER 2017

Wartburg Theological Seminary
Dubuque, Iowa

This is a work in progress

Original Version 1 August 2017

Revised Version – 22 August 2017 – Changing MN 106W
to point to two paperback books (instead of hardcover)

25 August 2017 Revision – Replaced MN 157W

How to use this booklist:

Courses are arranged alphanumerically, but major division and then by individual course numbers. Each course will have one or more pages associated with it, labeled at the top of the first page as to the course number and course title, and in most cases the instructor's name(s).

Textbook requirements for a course are divided between "Required" and "Recommended" books (and in some cases "Highly Recommended" and "Recommended"). Students are normally expected to acquire (or use library reserves for) the required books. Recommended books are optional, and you may wish to wait on purchasing recommended texts until after the course begins and the instructor provides their notes and explanation on the why one might acquire a particular recommended title.

The goal of this booklist is to provide at minimum the title, author, and ISBN numbers provided for every text, and in many cases the publisher and other information. This book list is a work in progress, and these details are being added/updated as information is made available by the instructors to the faculty's administrative assistant or the seminary registrar.

Amazon is our current recommended source for purchasing books, with links for many of the books provided for their location on the Amazon website. Students are not required or obligated, however, to purchase from Amazon, and you are free to use to own preferred textbook sources.

The seminary course schedules for Fall Semester 2017 are available through the MyWTS web portal, at this location:

https://mywts.wartburgseminary.edu/ICS/Course\_Schedules\_\(Masters\_Programs\).jnz.jnz)

Both the numerical schedule (which matches the ordering of courses in this list) as well as a day-by-day/hour-by-hour schedule is provided.

Note:

This PDF book list is an intermediate document, as the seminary is in the process of developing a newer online method for disseminating this information through the seminary web server.

Wartburg Seminary previously maintained a "virtual bookstore" site at Amazon as an affiliate/associate, but Amazon is in the process of discontinuing these affiliated stores.
