

BI 202W READINGS IN NEW TESTAMENT GREEK

Instructor: May Burt Persaud

Fall 2022

Elective

Open to all students who have completed Greek.

1 credit hour; credit/no-credit only

Course Description:

This course is designed to help students renew and extend their skills in translating Greek; to exegete lectionary texts to build preaching resources; and to address the issue of inclusive translation by working with specific texts.

Course Objectives:

In this course, we engage several of the 12 Pastoral-Diaconal Practices that are critical to the mission and vision of Wartburg Theological Seminary. We engage in the Practice of Biblical and Theological Wisdom. We practice Complex Analysis and Curiosity. We develop the Practice of Personal Faith and Integrity. And with texts of so long ago and from the Greek world, we engage the Practice with Cross-Cultural and Global Dimensions and Immersion in the Context. Finally, in the study of the Hebrew Bible, we practice Being Rooted in the Gospel and Missio Dei.

Procedure:

We will translate and discuss upcoming lectionary texts.

Evaluation:

Students will be evaluated on the basis of attendance, translations prepared for class, and participation in class discussions.
