COURSE DESCRIPTION:

This course will foster professional collegiality among the MA students, discuss their ministry context or desired ministry context, look at a variety of ministries, and begin to work towards the capstone research project.

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

The course will focus on the following Pastoral and Diaconal Practices.

1. Practice of Collegiality. Students will grow in their professional collegiality with the other MA students in the course.
2. Practice of Ecclesial Partnership. Students will display a healthy sense of connectedness with the whole church.
3. Practice of Curiosity. Students will be curious about pursuing a capstone research project and pursue learning with intellectual depth.

PROCEDURE:

The course will meet weekly synchronously. If a synchronous time cannot be found the course will meet asynchronously with occasional synchronous meetings.

EVALUATION:

Evaluation will be based on full, active participation in the colloquium, including mutual accountability for reading and discussion.
